Analysis of the MAOM (Master of Arts in Organization Management) alumni responses for graduates from 1995 to 2006 indicates that 118 email invitations were sent and 66 responses were received for a 56% response rate. These responses indicated that:

1. Graduates are living in 8 states.
2. 76% indicated that their current employment was related to their Tusculum degree.
3. While the majority of graduates remained with their current employer immediately following graduation, for those that sought other employment following graduation, networking (17%) was the primary method used.
4. 92% percent indicated that Tusculum adequately prepared them for their current job.
5. Current employment fields were managerial or professional (59%), health-related field (17%), education (13%), and other (11%).
6. 79% agreed that the instructional quality in their Tusculum major was excellent.
7. 97% indicated that the one-course-at-a-time schedule was beneficial for in-depth study of their coursework.
8. 86% indicated that they would attend Tusculum if they had it to do all over again.
9. 88% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the skill of working as a team member as great to very great.
10. 81% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the skill of getting along with people whose attitudes and opinions differed from theirs as great to very great.
11. 70% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the area of upholding ethical standards and beliefs as great to very great.
12. 89% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the skill of speaking effectively as great to very great.
13. 83% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the area of leadership skills as great to very great.
14. 81% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the skill of writing effectively as great to very great.
15. 60% rated Tusculum’s contribution to their growth in the skill of analytical reading as great to very great.
16. 82% agreed or strongly agreed with the statement that their program of study contributed significantly to their ability to analyze and synthesize data and ideas.
17. 91% agreed or strongly agreed with the statement that their program of study offered numerous opportunities to become an engaged learner.
18. 80% agreed or strongly agreed with the statement that the knowledge and skills acquired in their major program or coursework has had a practical application for professional and personal use.
19. 72% agreed or strongly agreed with the statement that skills and knowledge acquired in their major program aided in advancement at work.

20. 87% indicated that they usually to always vote in local elections, 89% in state elections, and 94% in national elections.